What's New at the State Library of Kansas

The State Library of Kansas now has digital audiobooks and digital music available for downloading to personal computers and transferring to CD's and portable devices. The web-site address for this service is:
<http://kansas.lib.overdrive.com>.

Some of the over 500 audiobooks include titles by popular authors such as Jack Higgins, Nicholas Sparks, and James Patterson. Popular children's titles by authors including C.S. Lewis and Lemony Snicket are available as well. Of course, there are the classics by Shakespeare, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Mark Twain, and Edgar Allan Poe.

Over 400 eMusic titles cover many genres from classical to ragtime to jazz featuring composers such as Beethoven, Chopin, Gershwin, and many more all time favorites.

Downloading the necessary software is a simple process. On the "First Time User?" page, you will find links to OverDrive Media Console and Windows Media Player downloads. There are prompts to walk you through each step of the process. A word of caution to Apple users, these services will not work with Mac products or iPods.

The State Library of Kansas also provides access to online databases. These databases include Heritage Quest (a genealogy database), Literature Resource Center, Infotrac, and many more. These online resources may be accessed from your home computer for your daily research needs.

Getting a Kansas State Library Card is easy. You may apply in person at a participating library such as CARL. You may apply online at www.kslc.org/temporaryAccount.jsp for a temporary account. If you apply online, you will have 30 days to appear in person and show proof of your Kansas residency at a participating library to have your account validated.

The CARL Summer Reading Program

Summer vacation means extra time for reading. To encourage reading for fun, the library is introducing "Books... the Other Channel" as the summer reading program theme. Beginning in June, children may pick up a summer reading program bag at the library. The bag will include a summer reading record for recording the titles of books read during the summer. When children come to the library, they can write the name of the books they have read on paper circles. These circles will be used to create a "bookworm" that will grow across the children's room as children add titles. We want to see how big the "bookworm" can grow. At the end of the program, children can turn in their reading record and receive a reward for participating. We encourage parents to read with and to their children. Parent brochures encouraging family literacy will be included in the reading program bag. Book parties will be held during the summer to celebrate certain famous characters and book titles. Stay tuned for more information concerning these events.

*"The more that you read, the more things that you know.
The more that you learn,
the more places you'll go."
~ Dr Seuss ~*
